Insurance Continuing Education

Renewal of a producers license is required every 2 years by the end of your birth month.

Washington State requires 24 hours of continuing Education every 2 years with 3 of those hours in ethics. We have a variety of courses available with varying credit hours. You may complete your Continuing Education in the comfort of your own home or office by using our open-book, multiple-choice, at home textbook courses (please return the books), or we offer downloadable PDF courses available through our website. These downloadable courses are also available entirely online. You may choose any of the courses offered, regardless of the lines on your license, as long as you meet the full total of required hours.

Package Prices are for any combination of the physical books and include mailing costs.
